Editorial

Welcome to the September Newsletter and the many events on offer

We would like to remind everyone that we need to start the evening at 8p.m. prompt to avoid our guest speakers being unduly delayed.

Our current membership is such that we are able to welcome a few new members to join. If you know of anyone who might be interested please have a word with them, invite them along to a meeting and they can see if it's for them.

Members are reminded that they are welcome to bring along a guest to a maximum of three meetings in a year, at a charge of £2.00 each, or £4.00 if it is a wine tasting. Please note that it is the responsibility of the accompanying member to pay the guest fee, to Anna Head or any other committee member.

Would all existing members please advise Anna of any changes in their personal details if different from last year's, particularly e-mail addresses. And new members please make sure Anna has your up-to-date contact details (including correct post code).

New dinner list for the autumn.

The summer's gone - honest - so it's time for a new dinner list. The new list will start in October.

As always, please let me know if either:

- b. You are not on this summer's list and would like to join.

Alternatively, if you are not sure what it all involves and would like to know more, please feel free to contact me - either at a club night, on 01925 262977. Or most preferred by e-mail.

Thanks!
Frank

Caravanning 2009

August Bank Holiday Caravan Meet 28th August -1st September

If the Old Duffer had only known the difference between 21 and 20 we would all have found the caravan site at Rhos much more easily, but at his age we can forgive Derek anything. Nine outfits arrived safely on Friday, and soon settled in with BBQ's, beer and wine.

Saturday saw most people going on a short walk, (hardly any of us can manage more than a short walk), ending at the pub where we were joined by the few non walkers, except for David who had escaped from Olwen and gone to Old Trafford (It's a good job they beat Arsenal).

We were joined by 10 visitors over the weekend, at various times. It is surprising the lengths people will go to just to be eligible for the caravan dinner. It was good to see Derek & Liz, Chris & Norman, Steve & Yvonne from Anglesey, David & Angela on their way to Abersoch, and friends of Albert & Sylvia who arrived in a red Porsche. The Langley's awning must have elastic sides, as 21 people managed to sit down and eat their evening meal in it, and we think we could possibly manage a couple more if everyone gets small chairs,

Sunday was again a blustery day, with odd showers, but visits were made to Newborough beach, Llandudno, Penrhyn Castle, Carnaervon, Conway, and Betwys Coed. We all met up in time for Gin Club, and BBQ, and once again stretched the sides of the awning.

Another good weekend, with fun, laughter and friendship.
Thank you Cath and Derek for organising it,

There will be a planning meeting for next year, on Wednesday 4th November at Sylvia and Albert's. at 8 p.m.
